

MY MOTHER

To my memory comes a vision
That my heart can ne'er forget,
Of my mother, with her tender care for me,
For the face of years forgotten
Still remains, I see it yet,
And her brow redeems the frown of Calvary.

"Twas the voice of my dear mother,
Full of love and sympathy,
That so often cheered my heart when sad and lone,
For I felt the need of Jesus,
And her constant prayer for me,
Led my wandering footsteps
To my Father's House.
